Heart Research UK and Subway - Healthy Heart Grants

The Healthy Heart Grants scheme is a result of a partnership between the Heart Research UK (HRUK) and the SUBWAY franchise. The money for the grants is raised by SUBWAY staff and customers through in-store fundraising and collection boxes located throughout the UK.

The scheme does not support general healthy lifestyle projects. Projects must focus on, and actively promote, heart health or reduce the risk of heart disease for the duration of the project.

Community or voluntary organisations, registered charities or other not for profit organisations may apply for a grant of up to £10,000. The fund closes on 1st September 2017.

The Department for Transport's (DfT) Inshore and Inland Rescue Boat Fund

The Fund provides grants to purchase items which will support the charities' lifesaving and rescue operations, including assets and equipment like life rafts, life jackets, and safety equipment.

In previous years, the funding has been used by charities to invest in capital equipment (eg. lifeboats, flood rafts or off road vehicles), which have already been used in rescue operations, or for the maintenance of their existing equipment, or the purchasing of new equipment for crews, such as personal protective equipment.

The total grant fund over five years is £5 million, with £1 million available in each financial year. To date, £2.6 million has been awarded to 88 charities.

There is no minimum or maximum grant. In 2016/17, awards ranged from £324 to £42,000, and the average award was £13,502.

For 2017/18, applicants must contribute 10% towards the (ex-VAT) cost of items funded. Applicants must:

- ~ Be a registered charity that is located and operating in the UK;
- ~ Currently operate an inshore rescue boat/lifeboat in the UK;
- ~ Be able to provide a letter of support from its tasking authority.

The following are not eligible for funding:

- ~ organisations other than a registered charity;
- ~ organisations from outside the UK;
- ~ Purchase of assets to be used for cash-earning purposes;
- ~ Retrospective costs;
- ~ Equipment for commercial purposes;
- ~ Infrastructure and administration costs;
- ~ Training costs; or
- ~ VAT.

There is no standard application form for this year. Instead, the Department for Transport is inviting written applications. Full details of what the written application should contain can be found in the current guidance notes. Applications may be submitted by email or by post.

The application deadline is midnight on Wednesday 6 September 2017.

The James Tudor Foundation

The Foundation is a charitable organisation established for the relief of sickness. Grants are available to registered charities for work in the areas of palliative care; medical research; health education; the direct relief of sickness; prevention and relief of sickness overseas.

The Foundation does not specify a minimum or maximum level of grant. Grants are usually for one year, but may be for more. Generally, grants are not made for longer than three years.

The Foundation makes grants for charitable purposes across the following programme areas:

~Palliative care ~Medical research ~Health education, awards and scholarship ~The direct relief of sickness ~Overseas funding for the relief of sickness ~The fulfilment of its charitable objects by other means

The Foundation usually supports project costs. Equipment may be funded but applicants must contact the Foundation first if their proposal includes a request for equipment funding.

Core costs are only considered for those organisations with which the Foundation has a long relationship. Please note, funding is unlikely to be available to large national charities which enjoy widespread support, or local organisations which are part of a wider network of others doing similar work

Applications may be submitted at any time.

The Norman Family Charitable Trust

The Trust was set up in 1979 when the family sold the chain of cash and carry stores in the South West of England. The idea behind the Trust was to give something back to the communities which had supported the business, through grants to charities and not for profit organisations.

Whilst the Trust can make grants all over the South West it tends to focus on the 9 areas in which there used to be a 'Normans' store.

The Trust has recently begun a new financial year and will be making grants in the region of over £400,000 this year. The majority of grants made are between £500 and £1,000, but have ranged from £100 to £25,000. The Trustees have agreed on a new grant policy, details of this and of how to apply, can be found on the Trust's website: www.nfct.org

Meetings to consider applications up to £5,000 are held every 6-8 weeks, larger applications are considered at quarterly meetings.

The date of the next meeting is published on the web site. <http://www.nfct.org/>

The Rayne Foundation

The Foundation makes grants to charities and organisations in order to 'understand and engage with the needs of UK society, and to find ways and means to help address those needs'.

Funding can be obtained for salaries and project costs, running costs and capital costs of building and equipment, and there is no set limit for the amount of funding you can ask for, however the average grant is around £15,000.

The Foundation makes grants within the areas of Arts, Health, Wellbeing and Education. Within these broad sectors, applications that apply to the Foundation's evolving list of areas of special interest are encouraged:

~Arts in deprived communities ~Developing numeracy skills ~Improved quality of life for older people
~Improved palliative care in the community ~Young people's improved mental health

The Foundation operates a two-stage application process. Applicants must first complete the Stage One application form that can be downloaded from the Foundation's website. If a second-stage application is requested, more detailed information will be required.

Apply anytime.

The Rowing Foundation

The Foundation aims to promote the participation in rowing of young people (those under 18 or still in full time education) and the disabled of all ages. The Foundation is currently accepting applications from clubs and organisations that are supporting participation in rowing.

The Foundation prioritises participation in rowing by the young or disabled through the provision of equipment, such as boats, sculls, ergos, oars and essential safety equipment.

Grants of between £500 and £3,000 are available, for up to 50% of the overall cost of the project, to initiate projects. Organisations must demonstrate their ability to complete the project. Coaching, revenue or any commitments requiring long-term support are rarely approved, as are contributions towards general funds.

The Foundation prefers to fund groups whose requirements may be too small or who may be otherwise ineligible for an approach to the National Lottery or other similar sources of funds.

The next deadlines for applications are 6th November 2017.

Wolfson Foundation/Theatres Trust - Urgent Repairs Scheme

Theatres Trust has launched the Urgent Repairs Scheme, a new fund set up in partnership with the Wolfson Foundation. Both organisations are aware of the challenges facing theatres today and how difficult it is to maintain even a preventative maintenance programme. This then leaves theatres vulnerable when unforeseen issues arise such as weather damage and the need to undertake works to suspended fibrous plaster ceilings following the introduction of a more rigorous inspection regime.

Theatres in need of immediate repair and maintenance, and which could otherwise face closure, will be able to apply for grants of up to £15,000. The scheme is open to all theatres operating a year-round programme of live performance. Theatres that are not statutory listed will need to demonstrate the architectural significance of their building. Priority will be given to projects that deliver urgent building repairs, and which can demonstrate that without such repairs the viability of the theatre and its future as a place presenting live work to audiences is at risk.

Theatres
Trust

The scheme will not fund repairs to equipment, fixtures and fittings and plant except where a major failure is proving a significant risk to the theatre's continued operation. There will be two funding rounds in 2017. Round one has already closed. Round two will close on 15th September, with decisions announced in January 2018.

Big Lottery—Awards for All

A very popular small grant scheme, that many groups will be familiar with. There have been some welcome changes to the Awards For All grants scheme. The application form has fewer questions, and Big Lottery has set new priorities:

- Bring more people together and build strong relationships in and across communities
- Improve the places and spaces that matter to communities
- Enable more people to fulfil their potential by working to address issues at the earliest possible stage.

There are also new things eligible for funding, such as staff costs, and running costs, which in the past were excluded.

The level of grant remains the same (£300-£10k), and you can apply at any time. A welcome change is the old restrictions on repeat or continuation funding has gone; so now any eligible group can now apply for repeat funding of their activities.

The old application forms can still be used, however Big Lottery will be announcing a cut-off date when the old form will become obsolete.

New guidance notes and application forms can be found here:

Comic Relief: Active Ageing - Creating Change in Communities

Comic Relief has launched a £1.5 million fund to engage older people aged 65 and over in volunteering. Between 15 and 25 grants will be awarded to projects that specifically target older people who don't usually participate in volunteering or social activities because they are from a disadvantaged community, or face other barriers to participating. Grants of between £40,000 and £80,000 for up to three years' work will be made to registered organisations based in the community in which they are already working with older people (including those working with national or regional partners). Partnership applications are also welcomed. The activities planned must have positive benefits for older people, providing them with meaningful roles for social interaction and leadership and recognising and valuing their contributions. Eligible additional support costs can include, for example, the provision of accessible transport.

The programme is open for proposals until midday 29 August 2017.

The Prince Countryside Fund

The Fund provides more than £1m in grants each year to projects across the UK. They have grants of up to £50,000 available for innovative projects that will provide a lasting legacy to the individuals and communities they seek to benefit.

The Fund recognise that rural communities face a range of challenges. One way in which they help grassroots organisations overcome these is through our grant programme.

The Fund seek applications to support activity that results in a long-term positive impact on rural communities by helping the people that live and work in the countryside. Their grant programme currently aims to tackle the following key rural issues:

1. To improve the prospects of viability for family farm businesses
2. To sustain rural communities and drive economic vibrancy
3. To support aid delivery in emergency and building resilience

The Fund is open for applications again on Monday 4th September and close at 5pm on Thursday 5th October.
