

2018 Sponsorship Prospectus

"Thanks so much for continuing to put on one of the best conferences in the country. CodeStock single-handedly turned my career around [for the better] the one time I attended. I've not been the same since, and that's a very good thing."

- Program Manager at Microsoft

Conference Overview

CodeStock is an annual technology conference for developers and IT professionals held in Knoxville, TN each spring. The event is organized by the CodeStock Corporation, a 501(c)(3) organization. The conference spans two days each year and is packed with technical content of all levels and interests. 2018 will mark the 11th year of the event and will host over 70 speakers presenting around 100 topics that span the gamut from best practice, enterprise software development to cutting edge web techniques to managing a technical entrepreneurial endeavor.

In the past, we have hosted over 1000 attendees and sold out well in advance of the event. Our roster of guests range from junior developers to senior architects to c-level executives of many small to medium sized organizations around the country. This past year, in 2017, we attracted guests from outside of the US and officially became an international event within our industry.

Feedback from Recent Attendees

"You guys hit this one out of the park. Great job. I was overwhelmed by the density of the material and exhausted after both days."

"I wouldn't have improved and become an IT Manager if not for programming and people skills learned at CodeStock."

"I owe a lot to CodeStock. They really helped my career by giving me speaking opportunities."

"I was very impressed with the range of topics and quality of the speakers. It was two days very well spent!"

"Had a great time at my first CodeStock. Makes me feel like an idiot for not attending sooner. It was a great opportunity to interact and learn."
