

Ripple SFN Travel Award Announcement

This year, Ripple will award 5 students each a $500 travel stipend to attend SFN in Washington, DC.

If you have used the Ripple Grapevine system in your research, and you are presenting your research results at SfN this year, enter your abstract to win!

Winners will be chosen based on innovative use of our Grapevine system, with special attention given to research involving use of our recording and stimulating front ends.

Submission Requirements:

- Submit abstracts to award@rppl.com by September 15th, 2017
- Submissions must include research institution and lab affiliation
- Submissions must be submitted in PDF format only, with the file naming convention: 2017_RippleTravelAward_LastnameFirstname.pdf

Winners will receive $500 towards SFN travel expenses and will be expected to include Ripple's logo in their poster or presentation.

Submissions due September 15th, 2017
